LITTLE LOCALS.

B. Deutser has a new ad. to day.
Captain and Mrs. Plummer returned to Sabine Pass this morning.

Judge Dowlen has opened up a law office with Guy W. Junker in the Langham building.

Marriage license was issued today to Alex Anderson and Miss Margaret Newman.

There is a lack of good houses to rent in Beaumont, especially small houses.

The East Texas carried some forty odd passengers out of Beaumont this morning.

Dan Bartholomew has just completed a good serviceable walk in front of his home on Railroad avenue.

The city of Beaumont worked nineteen prisoners on the streets during the month of November.

An are light has been placed by the city at the intersection of Park street and Bedford avenue.

The Simmons Hardware and Mill Supply company has a new ad today.

Let everybody--and his family--attend the Poultry show next week, at last four times, and it will be a success.

It has been suggested that the mills should allow the Poultry Show to accept their checks for admission fees, and then ride in them in cash.

W. A. Langham, the Fannin street liveyman, received three new rubber tire buggies yesterday, the product of the Eubree-McLean Buggy company, of St. Louis.

Quite a crowd of little folks will enjoy themselves with a Christmas tree, December 22, at the home of Ircan Vanderwater, gotten up by lady friends.

The city street and bridge force, in charge of George Arnold, put down sixty feet of sidewalk this morning in front of R. W. Sanders' home on Pine street, also a 40 foot crossing.

The Beaumont Rice and Grist mill are erecting a large warehouse at the corner of Magnolia avenue and Laurel street, just opposite the mill. The building will be 60x100, with 14-foot walls, and will have a capacity of 30,000 sacks of rice.

Houston will be well represented with her chickens at our show next week. The secretary reports that seven or eight of the largest breeders over there have asked for space. The show promises to be a hot one, especially in the American and the Asiatic class.

The secretary of the Poultry Show has worked hard to get exhibits and make his part of it a success, and if the people of Beaumont will do their part in seeing that they attend the show it will be a grand success, and great will be the name of Beaumont in this great land.

W. A. Ward, investment agent and local land agent for the Pee Gee railroad, has some bargains in Bayou front lands, improved and unimproved. Also, rice lands on canals; also, fruit, general farming, grazing and timber lands, and Beaumont property. Seven years' experience in land business here.
